

A festival market next week...

The monthly market in Crown Glass Shopping Centre will be celebrating the start of North Somerset's Made In Food & Drink, Arts & Craft Festival and the British Food Fortnight on September 19, from 9am to lunchtime.

Decorated in bunting and balloons, the farmers' market will have a bumper range of stalls with local produce. The market is delighted to announce the North Somerset Young Farmers will be attending along with their milking cow. Come and see what it is all about.

To tempt those taste buds, Gilly's Bistro will be on show with their latest monthly menu and treating you to delicious tasters. And to keep your toes tapping, Woody on the saxophone will be playing his heart out.

As you stroll up Colliers Walk you will find an abundance of craft stalls with an array of lovely products, all locally made and many one-off and unique items. You will also hear the wonderful folk sounds of David Francis and Peter Glanville.

As you approach Somerset Square you will see the newly-located community market surrounded by other stalls including the Uganda Water Project, Rotary Club and Nailsea School.

To entertain you will be Nailsea Dance Space introducing you to the wonderful world of dance with a showcase from 10.30am-1pm.

10.30am - Tribal Fantasy - Fusion
11am - Le Roc
11.30am - Saeeda Bellydance
Noon - Flamenco by Katie Gaunt
12.30pm - Irish dancing

For the younger members of the family there will be face painting, a carousel and candy floss. Our fine hog roast stall will be there to curb any hunger pains with their delicious pork rolls and tasty crackling.

Still lots being planned, so come along and support this celebration and have a great family outing.

and briefly...

CANOPIES TO HIRE: If you're organising a fete, carnival or any other outdoor event, then the farmers' market canopies could be just what you're looking for.

They are 3m x 2.5m and are available for hire with a minimum 10 booking, all fees include labour costs, delivery and collection.

Enquiries can be emailed to farmersmarket@nailseatowncouncil.gov.uk and booking forms with terms and conditions can be found on the market page of the town council website at www.nailseatowncouncil.gov.uk/markets.php

CONTACTING NORTH SOMERSET DISTRICT COUNCIL: If you need advice or a service from the district council or want to report something for which it is responsible, you can do so by dialing 01275 888888.

You can also give feedback online through Council Connect on North Somerset Council's website.

North Somerset Council streets and open spaces department deals with a wide variety of environmental issues: these include refuse collection, recycling, street cleaning, road and structure maintenance, street lighting and traffic signals, public rights of way and the maintenance of parks and open spaces.

You just have to call one dedicated telephone helpline – 01934 888802.

The helpline is available Mondays to Thursdays from 8.45am-5pm and from 8.45am-4.30pm on Fridays. The streets and open spaces team can also be contacted by email on streetsandopenspaces@n-somerset.gov.uk

REPORTING A MISSED WASTE COLLECTION: Residents should not report a collection as missed until the day after their normal collection day.

Even if a vehicle goes past your house, do not necessarily assume the collection has been missed, as the vehicle may be on a different round or on its way to be emptied.

Missed collections can be reported by:

- Using the website www.n-somerset.gov.uk/connect and click on 'report a missed recycling or waste collection'.

- Emailing streetsandopenspaces@n-somerset.gov.uk

- Calling on 01934 888802

Heritage open day at Nailsea's Tithe Barn

Heritage open days will be taking place across the country between Thursday and Sunday, and following the success of last year's event Nailsea Town Council and the Tithe Barn Trust are pleased to be taking part again.

The Tithe Barn on Church Lane, will open its doors on Sunday for visitors to come and explore the rich and varied history of this 500-year-old building.

We offer something for all the family, with fun activities, informative displays and music.

Children can dress up in Victorian costumes and discover what life would have been like for the school children of the past. School yard and fun games from Victorian times and present day will be available to discover and enjoy, and younger visitors may also like to join in with our owl hunt.

Guided tours will be available throughout the day but visitors are welcome to come and explore at their own pace. Tea, coffee and cakes will also be available all day. The Tithe Barn is fully accessible for wheelchairs and pushchairs and limited disabled parking is available at the rear of the building.

For further details about the Heritage Open Day at the Tithe Barn please contact us on 01275 855277.

Holy Trinity Church, adjacent to the Tithe Barn will also be open as part of heritage open days, on Saturday from 10.30am-5pm and Sunday from 1-5pm.

Guides will be available to describe the history of this Grade-I listed medieval church and Grade-II listed Georgian Rectory. They will also offer tours up the Somerset Bell Tower, coffee and cake in their coffee lounge and music in the church.

Nailsea Tithe Barn Trust

Nailsea Tithe Barn is a wonderful venue for weddings, art classes, yoga and much more but did you realise that this wonderful building is also a hub of first class entertainment?

The Tithe Barn Trustees offers an annual programme, running mainly between October and May, of films, music and theatre events.

If your musical tastes are for jazz, classics or folk, or if you want to experience live theatre and exhilarating comedy we have something for you.

If you missed nights out at the Tithe Barn during the summer the wait is nearly over.

Nailsea Tithe Barn Trust has been putting together a brand new programme of film, music, theatre and comedy for 2015/16.

On October 16, the Tithe Barn is delighted to bring back the very popular Moscow Drug Club – a great launch for the season's music programme.

Details of all the events in 2015/16 will be available from the Trust's stand at the community market on September 19, and can be collected from the Tithe Barn itself or by checking out the Nailsea Tithe Barn Trust's website.

■ Tithe Barn Cinema

Thanks to the loyal support and enthusiasm from Nailsea residents supporting Tithe Barn Cinema over the past three years, Nailsea Tithe Barn Trust has been awarded brand new, state of the art cinema equipment from the British Film Institute.

Tithe Barn Cinema is now the proud owner of a top of the range projector, sound system, superb speakers and blu-ray player.

The fantastic news is that this will not only make the Tithe Barn Cinema experience better, but will also help us financially, as we will no longer have to rent equipment.

Tithe Barn Cinema's new season of films starts this October – details in the 'What's On' section of the Tithe Barn website at www.nailsea-atithebarn.co.uk

It is open to everyone – there are no membership fees and no booking required – just turn up and enjoy!

■ Music and memories

Music and Memories is run by Nailsea Tithe Barn Trust.

It's free and is organised for people with dementia and their carers, though all are welcome.

If you'd like a friendly, lively and entertaining Sunday afternoon then this could be for you.

David and the rest of the team provide a varied menu of cheerful, stimulating and often nostalgic musical experiences.

If you want to sing along, clap along or just sit back and enjoy the music you will be very welcome at the Tithe Barn's monthly Music and Memories on Sunday afternoons between 2-4.30pm. And there will be tea and biscuits too!

Nailsea in Bloom looking for more volunteers

Nailsea in Bloom brings beautiful colours to the town but it can only do so because of the work of its happy bunch of volunteers.

The group has a few meetings a year, planting-out twice a year and does monthly maintenance, such as dead-heading.

The work is not onerous and the results are greatly appreciated by residents.

Many hands make light work so if you are interested in getting involved, please contact Wendy Mobbs on 01275 856701 or the town council on 01275 855277.
